VOLUME 7.

BENTON, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1895.

NUMBER 47.

McGee's Baby Elixir!

Lyon county furnishes the nominees for the democratic, republican and populist parties. She can now complain of having men of all political opinions within her borders. But the man Rice, will be our next representative.

Sam C. Malloy, postmaster at Kuttawa, was granted license to practice law at Eddyville a few days ago. Mr. Malloy is quite a bright young man and will make his mark in his profession. He is postmaster at his town, owns a store and conducts an insurance and real estate agency, runs the waterworks and pretty much everything else at Kuttawa, and it is supposed he enters the practice of law to fill up his spare moments. — Owensboro Messenger.

STRAYED—From my farm 5 1/2 miles from Paducah, on Benton road, one dark bay mare mule, 2 years old and about 14 hands high in good order. Its tail is sheared with long switch. Will pay liberal reward for its delivery at my home, or any information leading to its recovery. J. POLK BROOKS.

We are sorry that our democratic friends, have so departed from the old time democratic doctrine, that they want to tax their people in order to get money to pay the mine and bullion owners of the west for coining their money free. Let these gentlemen pay all the expense of having their bullion coined into money. Such a law is class legislation of the most dangerous character and when the people once understand it there will not be a free and unlimited coinage man in the ranks of the democratic party.

Sympathy for W. M. Reed.

A free silver and Blackburn man has carried Bill Reed's county 2 to 1, and as local option also won we insist that it is time for Bill to move. We shall enter him as a member of our Browder Edwards Emigration society, and while we are about it we suppose we had just as well put "Judge" Henry Burnett's name on the list, too. — Owensboro Messenger.

In Your Blood

Is the cause of that tired, languid feeling which afflicts you at this season. The blood is impure and has become thin and poor. That is why you have no strength, no appetite, cannot sleep. Purify your blood with Hood's Sarsaparilla, which will give you an appetite, tone your stomach, and invigorate your nerves.

Hood's Pills are easy to take, easy in action and sure in effect. 26c.

In a recent letter to the manufacturers Mr. W. F. Benjamin, editor of the Spectator, Rushford, N. Y., says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of your own state, where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years since, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the side and chest, and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit, and unequalled by any other. They are for sale here by Dr. R. H. Starks.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became a Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

ROUNDABOUT NOTES

Caught on The Wing.

It is rumored that there will be a wedding in North Benton in the near future.

"Hot water" is in great demand among some of our young men at present.

Oh! how thick mourning is on a certain girl, since Cecil has taken his departure to Lexington. Don't fret W. is here.

Since "Big Bobby" made a flying trip to Mayfield, and didn't go by himself, he didn't loose much time in going to Murray to straighten up "things."

The notorious "Driftwood," from the "free silver populo" stronghold, of Briensburg, is wearing an 8x10 smile under his glowing mustache on account of a nine pound boy making its appearance at his home on the 11th ultimo. He says it is already crying to vote for Rice for the legislature.

The Tribune says: The post office and Tribune office have been painted. It does not say what color, but we suppose "red." — Hardin Star.

Well brother, in one sense of the word the Tribune is always "red" (hot with news), but another it is not. A few nights ago some fellow painted the town red but it happened to be with "Riley's paint" and consequently it had faded away the next morning.

We see no reason why the "Oriental Order of Humility" should die out all of a sudden as it is the best thing, of its kind, in existence and there is nothing capable of waking the natives in the dead hours of night, in this slumbering little village, like this order and especially during initiation hours when a candidate is astride the "goat."

As the old fashion "red" grapes are beginning to get in, it will consequently take up a great deal of the young men and ladies time on Sundays afternoon, yes, and even after school during the week. Some very funny things have already occurred at this early hour but we will mention no names at present.

There have been several rumors afloat during the past month as to the marriage of a certain young lady and gentleman, who were great chums of a certain couple just recently entered the state of matrimony, but as to the truthfulness of the statement we are not informed.

Mr. L. P. P., he of Hardin Star fame, is getting up quite an enormous reputation as a meddlesome writer. He completely, as he thought, "doie up" Sam Jones, of which there are no comparison between them in any regards, but is terribly left. Sam is agin "free silver" and this is the cause of the spontaneous combustion of L. P. P. You should tackle somebody near your "calibre."

A few nights ago Mr. Jim Jones, hearing a disturbance about the chicken roost, grabbed his gun and went out to investigate the matter and spied an object, which he thought was a mink, and crack went the load in the gun, which would have killed a bear. When he awoke in the morning he felt as though he had gained some great victory and was very happy as he thought the festive animal would no more disturb him in his midnight slumbers, and went out to see his mink when lo and behold! he had killed one of his big fat hens, and Mr. Jones is now in mourning and very sad on the subject.

One Sunday morning Mr. J. L. Harris, our popular barber, called at Brandon's grocery while on his way to church, and bought a nice piece of beef for dinner. There was a small boy standing there and

Mr. Harris told him to take the meat to his house. Mr. Harris went on to church and while there worshipped in his usual pious way, his mouth watering during the time for the juicy meat. He went home for dinner and took his seat at the head of the table and to his great surprise saw nothing but bread, water and fat bacon. He said, "wife why did you not cook that good fresh meat I sent you for dinner?" She informed him that no meat had been sent. This puzzled the flord barber and as soon as he finished his unsatisfactory meal he went on the hunt of the boy. After an hour's hard walking and sweating, he found that the boy, by mistake, had carried the meat and left it at the home of County Attorney Lovett's. This was too much for the economical barber. Ever since he has been looking dejected and hungry, but swears by the holy St. Patrick, that he will never again risk his meat in the hands of a small boy.

FAIR DEALING.

Well Mr. Editor as most everybody has something to say as to the predominance of various things, I will say my say as to what predominates. Some say ignorance and superstition. Some pride and ambition, while others, equally as honest, as patriotic, say fashion and form reigns supreme over this proud land of ours. But ye scribe vows, from none other motive than experience, that the supreme influence is chills and fever. Nevertheless all are discontent and distant murmuring regarding modes of life and forms of government. Some seem to have a preference to certain ideas and wish they had lived in the early development of the country of which they have a flattering imagination. They would like to see and hear the orations and work of our early statesmen, forgetting that such periodicals can be easily obtained without a great deal of exertion on their part, but which imagine cannot be bought with money or price. While they take their course to the store of the imagination they take a geological survey of the surroundings and mourn the eternal loss of a great and glorious people. Anther class equally as jealous for the cause they advocate come before the public with an idea lately wrought out by themselves, and containing some of the grandest principles ever involved in a code of laws. A few, (including ye pencil pusher) who content themselves to wield the line across the back of the superannuated half ass and half horse singing in no uncertain sound "the old ark is moving, just let her move along." It would seem from the above that our country is composed of mere dreams, but not so, there lives as generous people as can be found under the illuminating canopy of high Heaven. While we have many who are prompted to action by fictitious thoughts other than real facts, we have also, some very ingenious, learned and skillful people here, including preachers, doctors and teachers, with farmers and men of all occupations.

Revs. Pigne and Hardin are conducting a very successful meeting at Olive this week. An infant child of Sanford Wolfe, died last Friday and was buried Saturday. Our school is still progressing splendid. It is rumored that Mr. Joe Price and Ida Ross will get married soon, we have not yet heard and expression from Joe so we will not swear to the above.

DEMOS CRATOS.

Sent it to His Mother in Germany. Mr. Jacob Esbensen, who is in the employ of the Chicago Lumber Co., at Des Moines, Iowa, says: "I have just sent some medicine back to my mother in the old country, that I know from personal use to be the best medicine in the world for rheumatism, having used it in my family for several years." It is called Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It always does the work. 50 cent bottles for sale by Dr. R. H. Starks.

Public Sale.

A Good Home to be Sold at Public Outcry.

The real and personal property of John M. Green, deceased, will be offered to the highest bidder at public outcry, at said Green's late home in southwest Marshall county near Brewer's Mills, Ky., on October 1st, 1895. Sale to begin at 10 o'clock a. m. Property to be sold consists of one hundred and thirty-five acre farm. Eighty acres cleared, balance in fine lumber and improvement timbers. Cleared land in good state of cultivation, abundantly improved and well watered. Could not be equaled in West Kentucky for a small stock farm. This farm is well supplied with farm improvements consisting of Binder, Mower and Rake, Riding Plow, Cultivators Harrows, Drills, Wagon, Hack, Buggy and Corn Mill. Also many other things to numerous to mention used about a well equipped farm. Stock consist of horse, mules, cows, hogs and sheep. Crop to be sold, about 500 bushels corn, hay, wheat and tobacco. Household furnishings also go, consisting of many valuable things. With this goes a remnant stock of goods carried in general store. This farm has on it a large pond well stocked with fish. Also store house, and is a fine opening for some energetic man who can farm or sell goods, one are both. This splendid chance for some man with capital is twelve miles east from Mayfield and eight miles southeast of Benton, the county seat. Nearest railroad at Benton. Is situated at the crossing of Hopkinsville, Columbus, Murray and Paducah state roads, and in a fine community. Eleven churches being in less than four miles. Nearly all the most noted creeds are represented. Good schools in one half and one mile. Correspondence and inquiry solicited from parties wishing a bargain in the way of a pleasant home among a hospitable people. Address, SOLOMAN GREEN, Adm'r. Brewer's Mills, Ky.

Black Rock, Ark. Sept. 8, 1895. — I yesterday and I as I received business letters, favored the contents from beginning to end. Important events have taken since I left home. The democratic primary election, the local option election and the imprisonment of one of our lawyers, for contempt of court, etc. I was greatly rejoiced at the result of the vote on the whiskey question. I think now we may, confidently, look forward to a general improvement in the morals of our town and county and the upbuilding of the churches and schools.

I will now give you a short sketch of the country through which I have traveled and the towns I have visited since I wrote from Mammoth Springs. I crossed the line from Arkansas into Missouri between Mammoth Springs and Thayer, Mo., they are two miles apart, the railroad runs in a north west direction to Springfield. I stopped next at West Plains, a town of about 3500 inhabitants. West Plains is the county town of Howell county, which is the banner apple county of the state. The people there talk orchard, as much as the people of Florida talk orange grove. And the real estate agents are ready to carry you all over the country if you will only intimate that you want to buy some land. West Plains is the best town of its size I ever saw. There are more people go there from the country to trade, than go to Paducah. There is a large area of country both north and south, that has no railroad, and the people come 75 miles from Arkansas here to trade. The soil in all this section of the country, from Black Rock, Ark., to Springfield, Mo., and then on south to the Arkansas line is lime-stone. And at Miss Edna is ever. All this south west is called the "land of the big apple" and rightly so. After leaving West Plains I stopped at Wilcox Springs, Cabool, Mountain Grove, Mansfield and Seymour. Then to Springfield, the Queen of the Ozarks. There is some magnificent scenery on this route, especially about Cedar gap. Springfield is a city of about 35,000, and has all the push that usually characterizes a western town. This is a city of churches and schools. I attended church on Sunday at the South Street Christian church. Bro. Pinkerton a former Kentuckian, and a cousin to W. H. Pinkerton, of Paducah, is the pastor. He has a splendid congregation and they seem to appreciate a good preacher. Bro. Pinkerton and the congregation know just how to make a stranger feel at home with them. I never spent a pleasanter day away from home than I did with these people. There is one thing a little remarkable about the people of all this section of the country, and that is: that you rarely ever hear any one swear an oath. From the time I got to West Plains until I crossed the state line into Arkansas I don't remember to have heard a single oath. As I am spinning this letter out too long now, I will close and try, in another letter, to give a description of some other places I have visited, including Eureka Springs, but no man can describe Eureka Springs.

Herald.

By an explosion of sixty pounds of powder Wednesday morning at Louisville, A. L. Robinson, Charles Biedner, Charles Woods and Archibald McBride, all members of Battery A. of the Louisville Legion, were instantly killed. William Adams, a colored driver, met death in the same way. Fred Conn and Ed Hobbs, also of the same company, were badly injured. The accident occurred on Broadway, between Third and Fourth, just before sunrise. The young men were riding on a gun carriage on their way to Phoenix Hall to fire a G. A. R. Salute. The bodies were blown to pieces, arms and legs being found many feet distant. The cause of the explosion is not definitely known.

NOTICE TO DEMOCRATS.

As the November election approaches, it becomes more necessary that every democrat in the county, put himself in line for the most perfect organization that has ever been effected in this county. One democrat should not wait for another to go forward in the work, but all should begin at once and never stop until an old time majority is given all the nominees at the election. Mr. W. M. Oliver has been appointed by the State Campaign committee the chairman of the county campaign committee, and he will at once begin a perfect organization of the democrats in each voting precinct, and each democrat should not wait but be ready to assist him in this valuable work. Boys get ready and let all get in the harness and do good and effectual work for the principles of the best party.

D DEATH.

Mr. J. H. Ivey jumps out of a buggy and dies in few hours.

Mrs. Martha Ivey, the wife of Mr. J. H. Ivey, left her home at Harvey late Saturday evening in company with Mr. Isham Bondurant to visit her daughter who is sick out on the Mayfield road. They were in a buggy with a mule hitched to it. When they reached the "Silas Kinney place" the mule became a little frightened and gave two or three long jumps as though it would run away. This excited Mrs. Ivey and she jumped out of the buggy falling with her head against a rock, wounding her so severely that she lived but a short time. She was taken to the home of Mr. Kinney's where died and remained until Sunday afternoon when her remains were brought home and entered in the family burying ground. She was about 55 years old, was the mother of several children, five of whom are still living; was a member of the M. E. church south and was always ready to assist in doing good. Mr. Ivey, her sorrowing husband and her weeping children have the sympathy of all their friends and acquaintances in the sudden and untimely death of Mrs. Martha Ivey.

That Suit Filed.

As was indicated in the columns of the Tribune a week or so ago the suit was filed in the circuit court one day last week against County Judge J. J. Dupriest and his seventeen sureties for the sum of $5,000 by ex-County Attorney H. M. Heath for false imprisonment. Mr. Heath was in Paducah last Saturday, where he engaged services of Gen. T. E. Moss, one of the ablest attorneys in the state to assist him in prosecuting his suit. He was in consultation with his attorney yesterday again, getting everything ready for trial at this term of circuit court. Mr. Heath thinks he has been very much outraged by his honor, and he now proposes to leave no stone unturned in prosecuting him for damages. Judge Dupriest says there is nothing in the suit and it will end just like the other one did that was brought by the same party. He says that Mr. Heath's conduct was outrageous before the court and merited the greatest punishment for contempt known to the law and that he is ready to stand or fall by his action in the matter. From the present indications it seems there is a lively fight ahead, and as our readers are more interested in it, we will follow it.

Mark's bridge between Sharpe, on next day, September 25, 1895, will be religious services during the day. Elder T. F. Harrison will preach in the morning and Elder J. R. Hill in the evening. Everybody are invited to come and enjoy something good to eat and good preaching. This new bridge is the filling of a long felt want and it will open up a more direct and friendly intercourse with the people on both sides of the river. It is midway between Elva and Sharpe and one-half miles from each place. Johnston, Boulnois, F. A. Arant, Wallace and W. M. Reeder are the committee that see that all will have a good time.

Another Damage Suit.

Wm. Peck has filed through his attorney, J. M. Fisher, suit against Lee Cox for $10,000 damages. Mr. Peck claims that Mr. Cox slandered him in divers and sundry ways and before divers and sundry persons, by using language that was untrue and slanderous and damaging to his good name. He asks for damages in the sum of $10,000.

G. W. RILEY.

No longer in the Whiskey Business at this place.

Mr. G. W. Riley sold his saloon and whiskey interest, in Benton, last Monday to Mr. David I. Smith.

Mr. Smith owned one saloon, now he consolidates the two at Riley's old stand. His license does not expire until the first day in January 1896. Mr. Riley does not know at present what business he will engage in.

Tobacco Worms.

Tobacco worms are worse in this country than ever before known in the history of tobacco raising. To say they are bad don't half express it. They are really worse than an ordinary editor can command language to intelligently express. They are here in all sizes, shapes and quantities. The damage to tobacco by these green destroyers is more than has ever been known in one year and the farmers say that it is now impossible to keep them off the tobacco. They are prolific and so destructive that hundreds of acres of promising tobacco have been turned over to the worms, so that the people could give more attention to other tobacco in order to save it. Such a crop of worms will do great damage to the tobacco crop and still have a tendency to damage prices during the coming season.

Jo. Chandler in Jail.

Mr. Joe Chandler, who is wanted at this place on three different charges was captured by Sheriff Little Monday night.

Chandler has been wanted here for some time and has had to run several times to keep from being caught. He was chased about a half mile not long since by City Marshal Heath but was too swift to be overtaken.

Last Monday Mr. Little learned that Chandler was at home and he went to his house Monday night and found him up stairs
when he was immediately arrested and brought here and placed in jail yesterday morning to await the action of the circuit court.

Honey being for sale at the store commendations from different per-

Bro. Bill Bohannon was born
July 6, 1871, and died September 9, 1895. He professed religion in 1893, joined the M. E. church and lived a devoted christian until his death, and to know him was to love him. He will not only be missed by the family, but by the entire community and church in which he lived. We can only say to the bereaved brothers and sisters, weep not for Bill has only gone to that Dear Father and Mother that await the coming of their dear children, where the once broken circle will be united on that celestial shore where parting is no more.

He suffered here in this life and toil
'Til God's command was given;
And then he viewed a better soil
And upward rose to Heaven.
Weep not dear sister, brothers, friends,
For Bill is now at rest;
The Savior to flock attend
And they are always blest.

COURT.
Att'y—W. F. Bradshaw
Jury—J. H. Little
In March, second
Monday in Sept.
COURT.

There was never such a person as Pope Joan, the so-called female pontiff.

William Tell did not found the Swiss confederation, and the story of Gessler has no historical basis.

The "Man in the Iron Mask" did not wear a mask of iron. It was black velvet secured by steel springs.

The wonderful Damascus blades that cut bars of iron into were not superior to Toledo blades made to-day.

Seneca was not a half-Christian philosopher, but a grasping money-lender and usurer, who died worth over $3,000,000.

Caesar did not say: "Et tu Brute!" Eyewitnesses to the assassination devised that "he died fighting, but silent, like a wolf."

Charlemagne's plaidius had no existence and the history of the King himself is so clouded by myths as to be wholly unreliable.

Wellington, at Waterloo, did not say "Up guards, and at 'em!" The words were put into his mouth by an imaginative writer.

Richard III was not a hunchback but a soldier of fine form, some pretensions to good looks, and great personal strength and courage.

Augustus was not the public benefactor he is represented. He was the most exacting tax collector the Roman world had up to his time ever seen.

The story of King Arthur and his round table is a myth, although what purports to be the round table is still to be seen in a south of England town.

Pocahontas did not save the life of John Smith. It has been ascertained that this worthy man was the most able-bodied prevaricator of his century.

Marcus Scaevola never put his hand in the fire. The story was a fabrication of a Roman historian hundreds of years after the supposed time.—Ex.

Dr. C. C. Osgood,

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. Anderson, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quick nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. P. Kneeland, Conway, Ark.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
